

I Love to See You Happy (Livin My Life)

Robbi Spencer

I'm livin' my life for somethin' worthy
Livin' for someone other than me
Everything you mean to me
I love to see you happy

You embrace the essence of a soul that must have been sent here straight from heaven
You taught me love
Yeah you taught me how to care
With a love like yours I ain't going, not anywhere

This is why I have to sing to sing my song to you
This is why I have to say I appreciate everything you say and do
And I thank god that he made someone like you
And I should say considering this is why I say to you

I'm livin' my life for somethin' worthy
Livin' for someone other than me
Everything you mean to me
I love to see you happy x2

Living my life for something worthy
Living my life because you love me
Living my life for something worthy
Living my life because you love me

I'm livin' my life for somethin' worthy
Livin' for someone other than me
Everything you mean to me
I love to see you happy x2
