Movin' On

David Lynch

On the road I saw the signs
Flashing dark green
The owl of thunder from
And look like fighting and she through me
A breaking heart, a in the clouds, dark grey
And bleeding, Im gone
Down this road upon
Little nothing but a memory
A memory of gold
The dawn
A golden look and a smile
past the future, screaming up
I need
I cant see the truth,
Just a hollow echo
scared, sincere
I see myself, I dont recognize the same
Mmm, the
Time roll backwards start that show again
But I know how it ends
A rose stashed away
By the liars and
Its in the mirror,
I seen this text before
I dont recognize, anything, anymore
If I could fix it I would
But there is too
Blue gone.
