Magic Eye

Primal Fear

What the future will bring
Mankind doesn't know
The fate decides your destiny
Like a claw out of the darkIf clouds will make the day to night
Or the sun lights up your day
Will you be a lucky man
Or will you live in tragedy?That doesn't touch me
I'm able to understand
I have the power
I sold the key in my handI see the truth behind the lie
Because I own the magic eye
The endless wisdom will never die
I've got the power, the magic eyeEnvy and deception as long
As men live on this earth
The leaders of the nations
What is their final aim?Can you recognize
What's truth and what is lie?
Can you distinguish
Who's friend, who's enemy?That doesn't touch me
I'm able to understand
I have the power
I sold the key in my handI see the truth behind the lie
Because I own the magic eye
The endless wisdom will never die
I've got the power, the magic eye
