

Promise

Eve 6

Sleeping through the evening
Singing dreams inside my head
I'm heading out
I've got some ends who say they care And they just might Run away with you
If things don't go as planned
Planning big could be a gamble
I've already rolled the dice I spit and stutter stuff and clutter
Worries in my worried corner
Maladjusted
Just untrusted, rusted Sometimes brilliant busted thoughts
Think I'll stay for a while
I'm intrigued and I'm
Red as a newborn white as a corpse I promise not
To try not to fuck with your mind
I promise not to mind
If you go your way and I go mine I promise not to lie
If I'm looking you straight in the eye
I promise not to try
Not to let you down I am elated
I am all smiles and dated
In my man bites dog town
With a Spanish name I am all bone
I am two toned
Red as a newborn
White as a corpse I promise not to try
Not to fuck with your mind
I promise not to mind
If you go your way and I go mine I promise not to lie
If I'm looking you straight in the eye
I promise not to try
Not to let you down, so let me down, slow Why do you gotta keep the fan
On high when its cold outside?
Just wanna let you know
That I'm still a fan get it Everybody wants
Charm in a smile
And a promise
Well, I promise not to tryyy Go, I promise not to try
Not to fuck with your mind

I promise not to mind
If you go your way and I go mine I promise not to lie
If I'm looking you straight in the eye
I promise not to try
Not to not to not to leave (Promise not to try)
Not to leave
(Promise not to try)
Not to, not to leave, yeah (Promise not to try)
I won't leave
I won't leave
