When All Is Dead

Yellow Ostrich

When the bridges all fall down and you think your words are dead sound I will wait for you Thatâ€™s all I will do

When the bears and tigers are chasing all the streetcar vendors erasing
The fashion stops
The curtain drops

When your boyfriend leaves for the outside but heâ€™s cold the minute the horns cry I will see you then when weâ€™ve reached the end

A mass of black to pierce through a chance to focus on you
The hunt of one
The journeyâ€™s done

When all is dead and I am the only one with legs to stand
Will it be right when weâ€™re at the end?

And to Adam, Eve was the only â€˜Cause nobody wants to be lonely So they settled down and she came around

So if they could do it, itâ€™s easy
If you have no choice but to love me
Will you settle down?
Will you come around?

When all is dead and I am
Will it be right when weâ€™re at the end?
