

King of Indecision

A.Tone Da Priest

(Verse 1)

Im falling faster in my mind (and slowly wasting all my time)
Into a massive pool of miss decision
I cant decide Im going blind (What I dont seek I cannot find)
Can someone tell me whats the goal of this mission?
Im impatiently running round with nowhere left to go
Am I going the right direction guessing, I dont really know
Keep on waiting for my answers but they never come to show
Im so tired of not knowing, what she tells me always go

(Hook)

Make up your fucking mind; make up your fucking mind
Make up your fucking mind, make up your fucking mind, make up you fucking mind (2x)

(Verse 2)

I cannot decide, if Im just wasting my time, is there something wrong with mine
With too much pressure I resign, I am fine
Fine with doing nothing, while youre always up to something
Have the same old discussion bout you simply had enough man Im puffing
Complacency made me my worst enemy
I dont fucking know, every time I say these words she screams

(Hook)

(Bridge)

King of indecision

I am lost Ive got no mission
With my friends I create distance
Cause I do not think on my own

(Hook)
