

Twist of Fate

Minority 905

Verse 1:

I've been waiting, for my destiny
Everyone says It's never meant to be
But I know the difference between them and me
It's that there the ones who'll stay the same
Cause they'll never believe

But destiny won't wait and there would be no one to blame
Soon the world will know my name
Even If I'm on my own

Chorus:

Look in my eyes, I will fight
They're never gonna hold me down
I will write my own life
The end to my story
I'm setting out to crash the gates
I'm burning out in a storm of flames
I'm going out on a twist of fate

Verse 2:

It seems like they gave up
On their hopes and dreams
They told me that dreaming
Is nothing but a travesty
But I don't live to be a walking casualty
It's what sets me apart and makes me a minority

And it's time to stop the wait
Before it's way too late
Soon the world will chant our names
Even if we stand alone

[Chorus]

Bridge:

I've been waiting for my destiny
Everyone says it's never meant to be

[Chorus]

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>