

All In Vain

Atlas Losing Grip

Oh, you can't hold a gun to my head

No, you can't hold a gun to my head

Because baby, I would just refuse

Baby, I would just refuseAll in vain, all in vain

Well you don't know how I feel and I can't explainOh, you can't hold a gun to my head

No, you can't hold a gun to my head

Because baby, I would just refuse

Baby, I would just refuseAll in vain, all in vain

When I follow anything that takes my life

All in vain, all in vain

When I self-destruct for fun and I don't know whyYou might as well admit it, despite how you might see it

I'm never gonna waste my time with you

I don't know how you're feeling, you know you kinda blew it

I'm never gonna waste my time with youOh, you can't hold a gun to my head

No, you can't hold a gun to my head

Because baby, I would just refuse

Baby, I would just refuseAll in vain, all in vain

When I ate an appetite that I can't refuse

All in vain, all in vain

Having been there, I would never go again
