

One Fine Day

Camouflage

I hear your spirit calling
I hold your hand
And see you falling into the debris of it all.
We're making love and live in dreams We crash through walls but no-one wants to hear the screams And no-one knows the way or where it ends. I hear your spirit calling
I hold your hand
And see your falling into the debris of it all.
We're making love and live in dreams We crash through walls but no-one wants to hear the screams And no-one knows the way or where it ends. One fine day one fine day -
Anytime
anyday
we may find a way Anytime
anyday
we may find a way Anytime
anyday
we may find a way Anytime
anyday
we may find a way.
One fine day - anytime anyday we may find a way One fine day - anytime anyday
we may find a way One fine day - anytime anyday
we may find a way One fine day - anytime anyday
anytime.
