

Oh, No! What We Gonna Do?

VeggieTales

oh no! what we gonna do? the king likes daniel more than me and you.
oh no! what we gonna do? we gotta get him out of here!
oh no! what we gonna do? the king likes daniel more than me and you.

we could throw him in the dungeon.
we could let him rot in jail.
we could drag him to the ocean,
have him eaten by a whale.

we could let him rot in jail.
we could drag him to the ocean,
have him eaten by a whale.

we could throw him in the tigris let him float a while then we'll all sit back and watch him meet a hungry crocodile we could put him on a camel's back and send him off to ur with a cowboy hat without a brim, a boot without a spur we could give him jelly donuts take 'em all away or we could fill his ears with cheese balls and his nostrils with sorbet we could use him as a footstool or a table to play Scarbble on then tie him up, and beat him up, and beat him out of Babylon!

OR....(whispering)
i like it,
it's sneky,
and it just might work!

we could use him as a footstool or a table to play Scrabble on then tie him up, and beat him up, and beat him out of Babylon!
