Crucify the King

Iced Earth

Look at you now, exalted no more
Scorching's left your blood soaked into the floor
For having the sight you will pay a heavy price
Martyr for mankind, contrived sacrificeLet all your children pray, you've washed their sins away
I'll bring the suffering
Let all your children pray, I don't come their way
I'll crucify the kingLook at you now, you pathetic little man
With spear I pierce your hide, destiny in my hand
For all mine have lost your fate will intertwine
Your death will polarize, resurrection will divideLet all your children pray, you've washed their sins away
I'll bring the suffering
Let all your children pray, I don't come their way
I'll crucify the kingLike all false seers you're formed to fit the plan
Unsuspecting pawns to the detriment of man
And as your worlds collide war will bring the suffering
And to that end I'll crucify, I'll crucify the kingLet all your children pray, you've washed their sins away
I'll bring the suffering
Let all your children pray, I don't come their way
I'll crucify the king
