All Fall Down

Bic Runga

Daylight, let it stir you
Let it Kiss the sleep out from your eyes
Feel this weight now, lift into the sky now
On and on and on
On and on and onCradle, so deeply
So sleeply when I close my eyes
Sprinkle morning all over you and I
On and on and on
On and on and onCHORUS:
Sleep tonight
Drains into the morning
Let it feel alright
It beckons like a warningTrace it, embrace it
See it crashing through this pretty light
And yes you know me and how this thing of ours goes
On and on and on
On and on and onCHORUS TWICEAnd when we touch the ground
We all fall down
