

Yesterday's Make Up

Michelle Malone

The sun shines through my party dress
I look like a sinner but I feel so blessed
The congregation turns when I walk through the door
My heels click-clackin on the marble floor
It's Sunday mornin' in my Saturday dress I feel beautiful in Yesterday's Make-Up
I feel beautiful, I must be in love I look like cinderella on her way home
I fell like wonder woman, righteous and strong
The preacher keeps preachin' 'bout heaven on high
I wanna say "Amen, that's where I was last night"
It's Sunday mornin' in my Saturday dress I feel beautiful in Yesterday's Make-Up
I feel beautiful, I been saved by love
Ain't it wonderful when your heart gets a wake-up
And you feel beautiful...Preacher says, "Do I know you?" after church lets go
I said, "I'm not a member here, but I wanted you to know-
I want the whole wide world to know" I feel beautiful in Yesterday's Make-Up Beautiful. I've been saved by love
Ain't it wonderful when your heart gets a wake-up
And you feel beautiful
I feel beautiful
