Be All End All

Tree63

Center of attention, night and day
I just hang on every word You say
With world's revolving 'round You silently
How come You have all this time for me?'Cause You spend all day inside my brain
I'm overcome, hard to explain
What am I supposed to do?
I must have YouBe all, end all
Start me, finish me
Be all, end all, hey girlYou've been walking down my street again
Now everybody wants to be my friend
Beginning and the end of everything
You're the only song I want to singI'm absolutely in pursuit
Of something absolutely true
And all around has come undone
You're the only oneBe all, end all
Start me, finish me
Be all, end allBe all, end all
Start me, finish me
Be all, end allBe all, end all
Start me, finish me
Be all, end allBe all, end all
Start me, finish me
Be all, end all
Be all, end allCenter of attention
My [Incomprehensible] center of attention, [Incomprehensible]
Start me, finish me
