

Company

Ani DiFranco

What's the point
Of all this pointless proximity?
If you won't talk, take me for a walk
Through a little story All these years
Have made me sick to tears
Of such mysteries why should I keep you
If you won't keep me company? 'Til I get to know you
I ain't gonna show you nothing
Wordlessly, what you think this is?
You think that that grin
Gonna get you in, where you wanna be? Do I have to stand under your little cloud
Just to get near you
Baby can't you help this little girl not to fear you
Why don't you just talk, take me for a walk
Through a little story
