What It Is

Rico Blanco

The tears were spilt
The lies were filled with memories
The sleepless chills
The man of pure jealousies
The eyes and games
The months and years
The need for space
The grow and fearsI dont know if I dont know anything
All you want is nothing and everything
I don't mind if we keep on talking
It is what it is
So keep walkingBallet on
The finest eyes
The kings and boss
The minimized
The photographs
The plans and dreams
When one looks backs
It's never what it seemsI dont know if I dont know anything
All you want is nothing and everything
I don't mind if we keep on talking
It is what it is
So keep walkingI dont know if I dont know anything
All you want is nothing and everything
I don't mind if we keep on talking
It is what it is
So keep walkingEasier said than done
Easier said than done
Easier said than done
Easier said than done
