I Know Jesus Loves Me

Jody Booth

They say sweet salvation saves your soul, but without my woman I just don't feel whole.So,Jesus I'm here askin for your help cause without her I just ain't myself. I tried everything to ease the pain I popped pills and pumped Whiskey through my veins I need to turn to you and not the past. The sunlight through the stain glass hurts my eyes as I sit by old man Watson and his sweet ole wife. I come to church to try to heal my heart but it won't I know Jesus loves but my baby don't. So, forgive me wrinkled shirt and bloodshot eyes this Marlboro breath and these shanken hands of mine I didn't want to have to go back home and face the cold hard facts that she's still gone. The sunlight through the stain glass hurts my eyes as I sit by old man Watson and his sweet ole wife. I come to church to try to heal my heart but it won't I know Jesus loves me but my baby don't. So, Jesus would you bare this cross for me, if you can't bring her back and set me free I come to church to try to heal my heart but it won't I know Jesus loves me but my baby don't. I know Jesus loves me but my baby don't.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/