Open the Door

Zion I & The Grouch

Yeah, yeah, yeah, listen
Something about the way you kiss me
Damn girl, your lips are so soft
I can't control it when you're with me
And I really just want you to take it off
I can't control myself
I think about it even when I'm by myself
All I want is you open the door
You can be my lover, you can be my friend
Just open up, girl, and let me in, open the door
Let me be your baby, I wanna be your man
Here I come, girl, oh, let me in
Open the door, yeah
Open the door, yeah
Open the door, yeah
Open the door
Girl, your body is the greatest
I wanna hold on and never let go, oh
Can't you feel the anticipation?
I wanna lock you inside your door
I can't control myself
I think about it even when I'm by myself
All I want is you open the door
You can be my lover, you can be my friend
Just open up, girl, and let me in, open the door
Let me be your baby, I wanna be your man
Here I come, girl, oh, let me in
Open the door, yeah
Open the door, yeah
Open the door, yeah
I want you, I think of how it feels when I'm with you
Unlocking your door to get in you
Knock, knock, let me in, girl, I'm coming in Open the door, open the door for me
You can be my lover, you can be my friend
Just open up, girl, and let me in, open the door
Let me be your baby, I wanna be your man
Here I come, girl, oh, let me in, open the door
You can be my lover, you can be my friend

Just open up, girl, and let me in, open the door
Let me be your baby, I wanna be your man
Here I come, girl, oh, let me in
Open the door, yeah
Open the door, yeah
Open the door, yeah
Open the door, open the door
