

I Got to Find My Baby

Chuck Berry

I'm gonna search this town
From door to door
The love I crave
I can't find no more I got to find my baby
I declare, I wouldn't lie
I ain't had no real good loving
Since that girl said goodbye Hmm, you know I hate to see the sun
Hurry to the west
'Cos I know my whole life
Will be in a solid mess I got to find my baby
I declare, I wouldn't lie
I ain't had no real good loving
Since that girl said goodbye Yes, I ever since she said
That we were through
I've been nervous
And shook up too I got to find my baby
I declare, I wouldn't lie
I ain't had no real good loving
Since that girl said goodbye Yes, I don't care if it's the last thing
I ever do in my life
I'm gonna find that little girl
And make her my wife I got to find my baby
I wouldn't lie
I ain't had no real good loving
Since that girl said goodbye
