

Revelator

Allison Moorer

Darling, remember
When you come to me
I'm the pretender
Im not what Im supposed to beBut who could know if I'm a traitor?
Time's the revelatorThey caught Katy
And left me a mule to ride
The fortune lady
Came along, she walked besideBut every word seemed to date her
Time's the revelator, the revelatorUp in the morning
Up and on the ride
Drive into Corning
And all the spindles whineAnd everyday is getting straighter
Time's the revelatorLeaving the valley
Fucking out of sight
Ill go back to Cali
Where I can sleep out every nightAnd watch the waves, and move the fader
Time's the revelator, the revelatorQueen of fakes and imitators
Time's the revelator
