Perfume

Swan Lee

Like perfume
That runs around your skin
In liquid
That golden aroma
I see you
Baby don't run away from me
You fought it
This everlasting game
Now trust it
'Cause we are all the same
Don't fight it
Baby don't run away from me
Perfume
Bitter as gold
That was how you left me
Now I can see
This new world
But I will not falter again
A winter
Has brought you to your knees
Now summer
Is begging of you please
Don't fight it
Baby don't run away from me
Perfume
Bitter as gold
That was how you left me
Now I can see
This new world
But I will not falter again
I try to have it all
I'll change it all for you
I stumble and I fall
But I can stand again
Perfume
Bitter as gold
That was how you left me
Now I can see
This new world

But I will not falter again
