

One World

Nik Kershaw

Sitting here feeding
all these numbers into my machine
A number for every little thing I see
I execute and they come dancing in Dresses black and green
I recognise the number shining out at me
Telling me One world, one love, one reason why
One hope, one dream, one reason why
One world, one love, one reason why
One hope, one dream, one reason why
One reason why Many a good man stops to reason and pause for a while Many a big man doesn't even try
And those who should know better love the Word in praise and letter
They wonder how and when
When I just wonder why I wonder (One world, one love, one reason why
One hope, one dream, one reason why
One world, one love, one reason why
One hope, one dream, one reason why
One reason why They're crying in future tenses
Tearing down the walls and fences
No matter how I count
It still comes to the same amount One world, one love, one reason why
One hope, one dream, one reason why
One world, one love, one reason why
One hope, one dream, one reason why
One reason why
