Repetition (feat. Noah Kenton)

Texture

They Play it like a game of chess
Fussing over what comes next

I could've made the better decision
But I'm the god of the space that I live in

Till it's done, Till it's gone, Till I've won
All you see is what I let you
All you need is enough to get you by

I'll get you by
I'll let you vibe

And if you sit down and you shut the fuck up,
Then you'll realize that you speak too much
Got bloody knuckles but it ain't my blood
Repetition is a fools one true love

So then you sit down and you shut the fuck up,
And you realize that you think too much
Got bloody knuckles but it aint my blood
Bloody knuckles but it ain't my blood

Oh x3

All of my life gone x 3

Tugging at the sleeves of death,
It's fucking up my beating chest
I could've made the better decision
But I'm a slave to the way that I've become

So come with me, I know there's stuff to see
I've got to be, I've got to be.

Oh

Sdo then you sit down and you shut the fuck up,
And you realize that you think too much
Got bloody knuckles but it aint my blood
Bloody knuckles but it ain't my blood

Oh
