

Shoulda Let You Go (Introducing Amina)

Keyshia Cole & Amina

Just to think about it, I would do things that I would regret (tryna get you to)
To understand how I felt for you
I tried real hard time and time again but I Didn't know my love wouldn't grow, I shoulda just let it go
But I, stayed around thinkin you would learn to love And we both know, you're wrong
There's nothing you can do, to ever undo what you've done to me
I loved you, deep in my heart I know you couldn't love me
But baby I just kept holding on, I shoulda let you go
Shoulda let you go (x3) Couldn't do without it, I felt I needed you in my world (to get me by, by)
More and more I looked out for you, you tried to play me like a fool so I didn't care, that love wasn't there, had to just let it go
Couldn't stay around, thinkin you would learn to love
And we both know, you're wrong
There's nothing you can do, to ever undo what you've done to me
I loved you, deep in my heart I know you couldn't love me
But baby I just kept holding on, I shoulda let you go
Shoulda let you go (x3) Amina
And now I'm gone, plus I'd rather be alone
We both grown, lower your tone over the phone, aaight
I shoulda known, damn I shoulda known
This wouldn't last long, when you didn't come home some nights
And now I'm on, in the zone, handle business on my own
So respect the queen on the throne, aaight
Here's some strong advice, move on, that's life
You wrong i'm right, and I'm glad i letchu go
And we both know, you're wrong
There's nothing you can do, to ever undo what you've done to me
I loved you, deep in my heart I know you couldn't love me
But baby I just kept holding on, I shoulda let you go
Shoulda let you go (x3) Don't know why you would ever lie to me so,
But I shoulda letcha
Don't know why I could never let you go
Coulda, Shoulda, Letcha
Don't know why you would ever lie to me so
Shoulda let you go
Don't know why I could never let you go
Shoulda letcha I shoulda letcha go
Heyyyy oh
Shoulda let you

Don't know why I could never let you go
But I shoulda letcha
Everything I did, everthing I gave
You didn't understand NO!
Don't know why I could never let you go
Cuz I shoulda letchaBaby Ohh
I shoulda let you go
Long time ago
Yea!
