Haunted House

Ginstrings

Ginstrings ~ Haunted House
Going back to where I started; Going back to where Iâ€™m from Gonna pack these old dreams up
Oh Iâ€™m gonna run, Oh Iâ€™m gonna run..
And I ainâ€™t seen the sunshine, since God knows when Just waiting for the spring to come
To carry my burden, To carry my burden

Chorus
And before I left, they gave me a house
Now hope is locked in the basement, love is tied to the bed
My dreams are trapped in the attic, memories found dead
So I burn it down, my old haunted house

Thereâ€™s an old black motorcycle, in the back of the shed
Gonna build it up, drive it east or west, drive it east or west
And I know youâ€™ll get worried, if Iâ€™ll be home one day
And Iâ€™ll write the sweetest letters, to let you know Iâ€™m safe
Cause Iâ€™ll be home one day

Chorus
And before I left, they gave me a house
Now hope is locked in the basement, love is tied to the bed
My dreams are trapped in the attic, memories found dead
So I burn it down, my old haunted house

You know life is a journey, you can go anywhere
Donâ€™t deny my absence; Iâ€™m only trying to get somewhere
Iâ€™m only trying to get somewhere
And on my deathbed, I will lay in happiness
Without any regrets, Iâ€™ll be in that house again; Iâ€™ll be in that house again

Chorus
And before I left, they gave me a house
Now hope is locked in the basement, love is tied to the bed
My dreams are trapped in the attic, memories found dead
So I burn it down, my old haunted house

And before I leave, Iâ€™ll take this house
And that hope out of the basement, get love out of bed

And my dreams out of the attic, memories will live again
So Iâ€™ll build it up, this old haunted house

~End~

Lyrics Submitted by Gina Remer

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/