

If You Gonna Go

Frazey Ford

If you gonna go, then do it If you gonna leave then let me be 'cause I know that a person well sometimes just has to be freeI tried to give you all 'a me I thought that was what love was for I tried to be your everything and i guess I lost myselfSomething different in your aspect am I a bother to you now? well if you gonna do it ain't nothing to it just let me beYou know I'll be alright without you well I can learn to be alone When everything shatters the only thing that matters is an open heartSo if you gonna go, then do it if you gonna leave then let me be
well sometimes just has to be freewell sometimes just has to be free well sometimes just has to be free
