Devils and Angels

Royal Bliss

there's a devil in my head and an angel in my bed that's getting colder i'm trying to worm it up with only way i know there's something inside I think that I should tell her cause it's about that time I let her know and he says come with me i'll show you my way to a place where all the devils go days and days go by that I tell my self the lie i'm getting older I need to slow it down but the way I don't know well the devil inside telling me in order "to ever feel alive i've got to let her go" he says come with me i'll show you my way to a place where all the devils go no more pain no more lies and no more worries its a place where all the devils go and i feel cold and so alone cause i don't know which way to turn and i feel like i'm getting weaker cause i can't ever take control oh a devil in my head an angel in the bed that's getting colder I cannot I will not let her go and she says come with me I'll show you my way to a place where all the angels go no more pain no more lies and no more worries it's a place where all true lovers go she says come with me i'll show you my way to a place where all the angels go
