

Any Other Way

Daniela Andrade

hello, how you doin?
glad I crossed your path today no I'm nothing really special but I got a lot to sayman that smile how it holds me and catches me off guard and that voice how it moulds me and shapes my broken heartyou you got a hold on me
yeah you
you
and that's okay
cause I wouldn't have it any other wayI love the way you stain your t-shirts everytime you eat
and nothing could replace the sight of you every night you sleepyou
you got a hold on me
yeah you
you
and that's okay
cause I wouldn't have it any other way
