Midnight Blue

Brian Tarquin

And it came
Just like the rising sun
The shame
Of everything I've done
And the pain
Blew in just like a storm and now it rains
And will forever more
What's a boy to do?
I had nobody but you
My heart is sad but true
In midnight blue
And it died
Out there in the sun
A dead rose
From the ceiling it hung
And you cried
You cried out your fucking eyes before you sang
Me happy birthday one last time
What's a girl to do?
I had nobody but you

Your heart is sad but true
In midnight blue
Midnight blue
Midnight blue
Midnight blue woah oh woah
I keep a photograph
In a draw
Since the day you left
Me at my door
And now there's nothing left
Of you and me
I'm a total wreck
I'm smoldering
What's a boy to do?
I had nobody but you
And our hearts are sad but true
Midnight blue
Midnight blue

Midnight blue
Midnight blue
Now our hearts are midnight blue
