

Earth's Bane

Frostfang

The day has broken
Moon shatters down
Lights of no source
Mankind is forsaken
Fight for your faith as the seams break free
Die for the days that will never be
The ocean's no longer
Ravines rupture over
Eclipsing eternal
Why do they falter
Fight for your faith as the seams break free
Die for the days that will never be
Hold your head high as the eagle soars
The three headed beast lets a silent roar
The armies cry
Cleansed of their sins
They burn and they die
The world's gone forever
Fight for your faith as the seams break free
Die for the days that will never be
