Warm

Eric Roberson

I'm just letting it be known,
I don't wanna be alone tonight
I live for your hello, hello
Battle your so longs at night
I just wanna keep you warm
So rocking, you're rocking girl
Rocking it, can I keep you warm?
So rocking, you're rocking girl
Rocking it, can I keep you warm?
Rocking, you're rocking girlWe're outside in the storm and We're decide you and I we're performing
And we warming with your false alarming
It's you that is timing the go away
Deep in my mind I'm reminding
How he was grinding and kissing and listening
