

Rainy Day

Jacob Banks

On bended knee
I've looked through every window then
 Touched the bottom
 The night, a sleepless day instead
 A day when love came
Came easy like what's lost now found
 Beneath a blinding
 A blinding light that would surround
We were, we were, we were, we were without
 In doubt
We were, we were, we were, we were about
 Saving for a rainy day
 I crashed through mirrors
I crashed through floors of laughter then
 In a blind scene
 No ties would moor us to this room
 A day when love came
Came easy like what's lost now found
 And you would save me
 And I held you like you were my child
We were, we were, we were, we were without
 In doubt
We were, we were, we were, we were about
 Saving for a rainy day
 Oh, if I were you, defiant you
 Alone upon a troubled way
 Oh, I would send my heart to you
 To save it for a rainy day
We were, we were, we were, we were without
 In doubt
We were, we were, we were, we were about
 Saving for a rainy day
 Oh, if I were you, defiant you
 Alone upon a troubled way
 Oh, I would send my heart to you
 To save it for a rainy day
