

Even When

Jeremy Camp

You know and you see, the times of my defeat
When I fail to realize your kindness
Reaches through all my fragile fears of wasting any years
And I see you go beyond my silent feelings Even when I wrote my life away
You still receive me
Even when I wrote my life away
You still receive me You took this fading heart and softened every part
I'll rest in light of what you've promised to me Even when I wrote my life away
You still receive me
Even when I wrote my life away
You still receive me I'll always stay strong because I feel you holding on
Now to you I belong and I know
And you heal me and you heal me and you heal me Even when I wrote my life away
You still receive me
Even when I wrote my life away
You still receive me You still receive me
You still receive me
Even when I wrote my life away
You still receive me 'Cause I can figure your forearms around me
And I know that I'll never escape from you
