Flattery

Matt Monro

Please, don't flatter yourself
You're not the only one this heart has ever felt
Please, don't exaggerate
And don't tell me you're okay, okay, okay
I will admit it, if you admit it
It's harder than we both thought
It's easier to fall apart
Look where we are
I can forgive it, I can't forget it
You left me here with all these scars
And you can't deny the hardest part
I'm not in your arms
We're more hurt than we appear
The world will never know
We both have tasted tears, my dear
You're denying what I say, don't act like it's okay
'Cause it's not okay
I will admit it, if you admit it
It's harder than we both thought
It's easier to fall apart
Look where we are
I can forgive it, I can't forget it
You left me here with all these scars
And you can't deny the hardest part
I'm not in your arms
It's not in the cards
It's not in the stars
I'm not sorry, I'm not sorry
You're not sorry
I will admit it, if you admit it
Just please, don't flatter yourself
Please, don't flatter yourself
