

20 Miles To Texas 25 To Hell

Powerman 5000

20 miles to Texas, 25 to Hell Where the weather's hotter, yeah, like I'd never tell

Spend most of my days doing nothing but no good

Seems like I was born to be misunderstood, yeah 20 miles to Texas, 25 to Hell

20 miles to Texas, 25 to Hell I was born for stealing, yeah, I wasn't made to sell

Carved out of bone and ash, steel, dirt, concrete

An arm for an arm, a leg for a leg, one dead end street, yeah 20 miles to Texas, 25 to Hell
Fire's on the side of the road, yeah, people toe to toe

Warm your hands on burning blood man

I gotta go, go, go 20 miles to Texas, 25 to Hell If she ever loved me, yeah, I could never tell

Spend most of my days doing nothing but no good

Seems like I was born to be misunderstood, yeah 20 miles to Texas, 25 to Hell, yeah To Hell

To Hell

To Hell
