

Don't Let Me Go to the Dogs

R. Stevie Moore

i was under duress
when i said i was mad
i was sad
i'm sorry i broke your heart when i said you were had you were badoh no
don't let me go to the dogs
when i desire to spend my whole life with you oh no
don't go away with your dogspeople are not exactly what they do believe they perceive
when will i teach myself when to stay when to leave ask the beave
funny you mention life
after death, 'cause i know where to go we could go down to the pound where the puppies can grow very slow
