Leo Stannard

Waking up I'm miles from home
Yesterday's clothes, a broken phone
I'd love it if I was next to you
London's such a lonely place
In every train I see your face
I'd love it if it was really youDoes it feel
Like a river
Like a river
Like a riverWell lately every time I wake up
It's all I really think about, it's you
And maybe when we grow up
It's all I'll ever talk about with you
So tell me if I'm all wrong
I'm running out of reasons not to see you
'Cos every time I wake up
It's all I really think aboutDrinking in this endless view
Taking in what's old and new
And I'm trying, trying to picture you
Running down from Six Hills Road
Just don't know how far I'll go
I know nothing is better without youDoes it feel
Like a river
Like a river
Like a riverWell lately every time I wake up
It's all I really think about, it's you
And maybe when we grow up
It's all I'll ever talk about with you
So tell me if I'm all wrong
I'm running out of reasons not to see you
'Cos every time I wake up
It's all I really think aboutCome out here, come out here tonight
Come out here, come out here tonight
Come out here, come out here tonight
Come out here, come out here tonightWell lately every time I wake up
It's all I really think about, it's you
And maybe when we grow up
It's all I'll ever talk about with you
So tell me if I'm all wrong
I'm running out of reasons not to see you

'Cos every time I wake up
It's all I really think aboutYeah I'm finding my feet
But I miss you right now
Yeah I'm finding my feet
But I miss you right now
