

The Chosen

Doug Crawford

CHORUS

I hope my life counted for something
It's hard to see me coming when u coming from nothing
At a cross roads already chose my fate
Cuz Chances aren't given to those that hesitate
I got one life to live & I'm not getting younger
Knowing that its meant to be I can't fight the hunger
Accept my destiny things happen how there meant to be
The best 3 ill bet They'll Mention me
All good things must end eventually Catch me with Eyes wide asleep
Exceptional display I never show defeat
Revenge is personal pussy is sweet
But A life without music is incomplete
Try to stay Clean but I was raised in the streets
Bad habits always finds way to repeat
My road To success had been bitter sweet
Jump on any opportunity never took the back seat
Thinking Why couldn't they love instead haters wanna judge me 9
Like it matter anyways I'm somewhere sunny sitting comfy
It's all shining to me i Grew up uncomfortably
Learning curves from my newfound luxury
Friends turn haters bitches say was up to me
Only thing I know for sure u can trust no one
Id say fuck em all If it was up to me
Got a will to move oceans I'm the chosen CHORUS
I hope my life counted for something
It's hard to see me coming when u coming from nothing
At a cross roads already chose my fate
Cuz Chances aren't given to those that hesitate
I got one life to live & I'm not getting younger
Knowing that its meant to be I can't fight the hunger
Accept my destiny things happen how there meant to be
The best 3 ill bet They'll Mention me
All good things must end eventually

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>