To the Lions

Converge

To the lions
As she closes her doors to end this night
This raging sea won't have you
This weary grave won't keep you
These tired arms won't hold youAs she closes her doors to the lions Inferno dreams won't leave you
This moonless night won't guide you
These brittle ghosts won't love you as she closes her doorsQueen of guilt
Queen of grief
Remember them (erase me)
