

Lazarus

The Tucker Brothers

Did you enjoy that funeral?
No, that was me in the tomb...
It was such a lovely service.
But I did not like the room.
But I brought you pretty flowers
Yea, but flowers fade away...
There's just on thing I know
That's here to stay.
The Word lives forever,
the Word never dies.
The Word done brought me back to life,
Don't know how, don't know why.
Only know the sweetest sound this boy has ever heard,
is "Lazarus come forth", I heard the Word.

I'll confess it ain't no fun
to wake up blind & deaf & dumb,
It's even worse to wake up numb
and not wake up at all.
I'll confess, I must profess
a miracle occurred
When I was born again, I heard the Word.

The Word lives forever,
the Word never dies.
The Word done brought me back to life,
Don't know how, don't know why.
Only know the sweetest sound this boy has ever heard,
is "Lazarus come forth", I heard the Word.
