Gem

Natalie Lungley

Cross the road to meet me
Thought you'd never see
You opened up my mind so
I'm waiting to believe

Audition all emotion
Never follow doubt
Show me one direction
I cannot be without

Heard enough to reason
Muted every sense
Through the interference
I'm ready to receive

A glimmer of white promise
Found in you a gem
Call my intuition
I'm ready to believe

Ready to believe
