

Too Soon to Tell

The Subdudes

Rollin' Yes, the last night if I'd knew what I wanted
I replied that I feel like my soul is haunted
I've been dreamin' about this perfect thing between us
In your eyes, I see a trusting soul you possess
But it's too soon, too soon to tell I've been doin' some soul searchin' in the middle of the night
Every now and then I feel like I've got it right
Your little girl ways and womanly glances
Tell me I've found a thing that speaks of true romances
But it's too soon, too soon to tell So if you hear me sayin' somethin' crazy in my sleep
Don't hold those words so dear, nocturnal talk is cheap
Wake me up and ask me what's on my mind
I'll tell you right then and there, you are the lovin' kind
It's too soon, too soon to tell
It's too soon, too soon to tell
It's too soon, oh yeah it's too soon to tell Yes, yes
