I Shall Be There

B*Witched

[Foreign Content]Awaken, breathe
Hear the calling in the wind
The voice, it's saying
A journey must beginWe'll fly like a bird
In a scattered cloudy sky
Leave aside the city worries
It's just a minute awayIn my heart I'll paint a picture
And I swear it's where I'll be, ohI shall be there
Will you be there?
I shall be there
Will you be there too?Come and look in silence
Believe in what you see
In a place like this
The starry skies can move the mountains
The sun will warm the seaIn my heart I'll paint a picture
And I swear it's where I'll be, ohI shall be there
Will you be there?
I shall be there
Will you be there too?[Foreign Content]I shall be there
We will be, we will beI shall be there
Will you be there?
I shall be there
Will you be there?I shall be there
Will you be there?
I shall be there
Will you be there?I shall be there
