

Save Our Last Goodbye

Disturbed

Don't wanna hear it's over

What a rude awakening

Angel of death has come and ripped you from my lifeI can't stand the devastation

Relentless agony

Hope that I get to see you on the other sideBlue sky has turned to blackest night

Now you're gone, it just isn't rightSave our last goodbye

Embedded in my mind, your face will never leave me

Save our last goodbye

It's killing me that I won't get to hear your laughter anymoreWhat faith I had is broken

And I question everything

And those shards of doubt begin to penetrate my heartWith every waking hour

Within everything I see

The shadows of your loss are tearing my apartBlue sky has turned to blackest night

Now you're gone, it just isn't rightSave our last goodbye

Embedded in my mind, your face will never leave me

Save our last goodbye

It's killing me that I won't get to hear your laughterMy world is shattered and disarrayed

I'm beaten down, drained emotionally

They say in time the pain goes away

But in my soul it will forever staySave our last goodbye

Embedded in my mind, your face will never leave me

Save our last goodbye

It's killing me that I won't get to hear your laughterSave our last goodbye

Embedded in my mind, your face will never leave me

Save our last goodbye

It's killing me that I won't get to hear your laughter anymore
