

Rebound

I.Q. Collective

What's the reason you are so sad
I don't think that I have seen you frown like that
 I thought that I made you smile
 But I haven't seen you do that in a while
 You say he called you
 And he said he loves you still
 In your eyes I see you miss him
Did you bring me in your life to help you deal?
 Another night
 Now I'm feeling down rebound
 My heart can't help but frown rebound
 There's enough to go around rebound
 You know I love you you know I care
 There is nothing I want more than to be there
 The words I say come as a friend
'Cause it seems the world we share's about to end
 Oh please be careful
 Don't let your heart and mind stay at war
 All the things that cause you pain
Well it seems they are all knocking at your door
 Another night
 Now I'm feeling down rebound
 My heart can't help but frown rebound
 There's enough to go around rebound
 So I guess I'll go
 Pick up the pieces where they fall
 After all I have found
 The choice that I have left is to rebound
 Another night
 Now I'm feeling down rebound
 My heart can't help but frown rebound
 There's enough to go around rebound
 Rebound, rebound, rebound, rebound, rebound
 Rebound, rebound, rebound, rebound, rebound, oh
