

A History of Bad Men

(the) Melvins

Wake up you never looked so glum,
Tell me how will we know they can't hear us coming?
It's easy for me I've got a head-start running away.
Keep up for your disease spread quick,
So how did you learn to be sick, so cunning.
It's easy to sing but you just keep on humming along.
Did you hear that? I got a real bad felling,
How many bones are supposed to keep in?
Don't make a sound they're not dead, just sleeping
Dire, Dire, Dire, it's bleeding.
