Waiting All Day

Silverchair

Took advantage
Of a straight believing town
That tore the bandage
And said Look, who's bleeding now
Are you listening or are you faithless like the others?Long days are almost here
Faded signs for you
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
For you, it's trueHe's been beaten
Might have brought it on himself
So he stopped reading
Every book on mental health
But all's not lost in this tangle like no otherLong days are almost here
Faded signs for you
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
For you, it's trueTake this dose and go
Whiskey warm September
The faded sign will show
That he still remembersLong days are almost here
Faded signs for you
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
For you, it's trueWaiting all day
Waiting all year
Waiting all day
Waiting all yearI'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all yearI'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all yearI'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
