

Vengeance

Nocturnal Rites

 Into the void, an image of nothing is fading
 The venomous grey, dissolves into pieces of me
 The carrion calls, entices the pest, they're falling
 The Charon he waits
 But no one can see the flames at seaI'll have my vengeance
 My kingdom come
 I speak in silence
 Last mind astray, lead me the wayFlames over ice, the visions are false
 Wait for my vengeance
 See how it dies, outside the walls
 The memory purged from my eyes
 My vengeance callsAeons ignite, inflicting the visions forsaken
 Begotten in sin
 The womb holds the souls that will be
 The ravenous hole, swallows the dirt it has taken
 Even in death, a dead man is never free
