Round And Round

BodyRockers

You're cool, so fine
Your smile, divine
Your touch, so real
I can't explain the way I feelYour lips, those eyesYou got me running around
(Round and round we go)
There ain't nobody like you in the whole wide world
(Round and round, and round we go)
Guess, that I'm a sucker for a runaround girlBlow hot, blow cold
You sell, I'm sold
Silly games you play
Your rules, your wayThose lips, those eyesYou got me running around
(Round and round we go)
There ain't nobody like you in the whole wide world
(Round and round, and round we go)
Guess that I'm a sucker for a runaround girlYou got me running around
(Round and round we go)
There ain't nobody like you in the whole wide world
(Round and round, and round we go)
You know that I'm a sucker for a runaround girl
(Round and round, and round we go)Ain't nobody like you in the whole wide world
(Round and round, and round we go)
Guess that I'm a sucker for a runaround girl
