

In The Veins Of Death Valley

Birds Of Tokyo

I told you to let the good ones in You're worth your weight in gold
Struggle to fight the feud within
To face what you've become
Just when you think you're at the end
You circle on yourself
It's true what they say when things get crazy
We learn to thicken skin
Feels like the poison's creeping in
Stripping your vein it's settled in
Straight to the heart, good luck
You're finished for sure
Say now, it's been a lifetime of dreaming
This is the last time I bleed for you
So long, it's not forever and I'll stay
Here for the echoes instead of you
I want you to know you're in
The deepest of the oceans
I don't think that you can swim
You tell me that everything is fine here
And you can handle it
You're just on the edge, I think you're breaking
The cracks are showing up

Feels like the poison's creeping in
Stripping your vein, it's settled in
Straight to the heart, good luck
You're finished for sure
Say now, it's been a lifetime of dreaming
This is the last time I bleed for you
So long, it's not forever and I'll stay here for the echoes instead of you and the walking dead
'Cause you're too far gone
Feels like the poison's creeping in Stripping your vein it's clear to see
You're staring at death in the face
And you're all here alone
Say now, it's been a lifetime of dreaming

This is the last time, when you're gone things will be better
And I'll be the last one laughing
Cry out, no one can hear you alone now
No one will miss you, cast out
Never to be seen again
It's sweet at the bitter end
'cause your time has come
